THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI S.S. PALANIMANICKAM): (a) and (b) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that they have revised the Dirctions on June 22, 2004 to rationalise the pattern of directed investments of Residurary Non-Banking Companies (RNBCs) in the public interest, in the interest of the RNBCs and with a view to reduce the overall systemic risk in the financial sector.

The RNBCs were required to invest not less than 80 per cent of their Aggregate Liabilities to Depositors (ALD) in securities as per directions issued by RBI.

The discretionary limit of 20 per cent will have to be reduced to 10 per cent of their ALD from April 1, 2005 and to nil with effect from April 1, 2006. In other words discretionary limit will stand abolished from April 1, 2006.

(c) Yes, Sir. The RNBCs requested for withdrawal/modifications in the revised Directions. Since the revised measures are expected to enhance protection available to the depositors by imparting greater liquidity and safety to the investments of RNBCs, their request could not be acceded to. However relaxations have been given to smoothen the transition.
